YOUNG MAN SUPPOSED TO BE INSANELY JEALOUS OF GIRL

Coroner Heffran Holds Inquest This Morning at Washington.

FACTS OF SHOOTING

Popular Girl Murdered by Youth Who Then Takes His Own Life

At an inquest held this morning in the coroner's office at Washington, into the death of Miss Laura Braden, the daughter of Attorney Alfred G. Braden of Washington, and Walter Seybold, a young fellow who shot her and afterwards himself, the coroner's jury returned a verdict to the effect that the girl had come to her death from bullet wounds received from a revolver in Seybold's hands and that the latter had died from injuries inflicted by himself, when closely pursued by officers. The inquest was held by Coroner James T. Heffran.

The tragedy occurred yesterday about noon, as the girl was returning home from High School, where she is a sophomore. Five bullets were fired into the girl's body at close range by Sebyold. He then ran and after covering several squares, when he saw he was closely pursued by Chief of Police Delaney, threw himself on a lawn, and fired a death-dealing bullet into his own brain. Miss Braden was 15 years old and the boy 19.

Among the witnesses examined by the coroner this morning were Miss Helen Lynn, Mrs. W. W. Chalfant and Paul Hallam. Miss Lynn testified that Seybold passed her when he was [illegible] and that he spoke to her, saying "I'll get you yet." She was uncertain whether he meant her or not. Mrs. Chalfant testified that she saw the shooting and saw the Braden girl try to arise after the first two shots had been fired, but Seybold pushed her back and fired twice again. Paul Hallam said he was with Miss Braden and saw the tragedy.

The reason given for the tragedy was the mad infatuation of young Seybold for Miss Braden, which she did not reciprocate. She always treated him kindly, even when he, on account of his moody disposition, was called "anarchist" by schoolmates. From illness it is thought that he may have become mentally unbalanced.

The members of Miss Braden's class held a meeting this morning and a committee was appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the popular young lady. It was a very sad meeting. It is probable that some of the members will be chosen as the pall bearers for her funeral.

Young Seabold is the son of John W. Seabold a well known cigar maker.

Evangelists E. E. Hendrick and A. L. Carter, who are holding services at the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church went to Masontown, this morning to spend the day with friends. They held services there last winter.

FATE HAS IT IN FOR MAN

Former Donora Resident Returns With Woeful Tale of Misfortunes.

An investigation has been started, through the appearance of John Somerville, an aged Scotchman, at his former home in Donora, to clear up a mystery of two years' standing.

Somerville has had more than his share of ill fortune, and the fickel dame has apparently done anything but smile on him. He and his wife formerly lived at Donora. Fate had it in for them, and debts accumulated in a startling manner. As a result they decided to leave for their native heath, Scotland. Tickets were purchased, affairs shaped up, and they left. The first thing Somerville did, was to lose his mileage book. He found it later, however. In New York, according to his story he was drugged by some one, and was lying on a public road when he came to. From there he was taken to a poor house. Everything of any value whatsoever had been taken from him. Finally a kindhearted person lent him enough to come to Donora, and now he is trying to raise funds enough to get back to Scotland.

His wife thought him dead, and wrote to a friend that he had disappeared from her side. He blames her for his misfortune.

BENTLEYVILLE THINKS IT WILL GET STATION

According to a statement made by Engineer Barrett of the Pennsylvania Railroad, the company is now ready and willing to give Bentleyville a station. He further said, however, that people there must show that they are in earnest about wanting a station. He said the persons who owned the property on which the company wished to locate the station were asking excessive prices for their ground, and were thus holding back this improvement, which would mean much for the town and community. Mr. Barrett hinted that unless a different spirit was shown the station might be shifted to a point which would not be nearly so acceptable to a large part of the residents.

SHOES WILL BE GIVEN AS CHRISTMAS PRESENTS TO NEEDY CHILDREN OF TOWN

Ever since Adolph Beigel, the enterprising shoe merchant, opened the Sample Shoe Store at 502 Fallowfield avenue he has enacted the role of Santa Claus each Christmas, and distributed treats to the myriads of children who flocked to his store. The custom will be continued again this Christmas, as the little ones have come to regard it as an annual holiday event to which they look forward to with pleasure.

Not only will Adolph look after the children again this Christmas as usual, but in appreciation of the patronage of the people and the good will of the various churches of the community he proposes to extend his Christmas beneficences to a more practical application. To this end he proposes to distribute among the worthy and needy children of the various church congregations the following articles: Fifty pairs of children's leggings; 50 pairs of children's rubbers; 50 pairs of childen's slippers; 50 pairs of children's shoes.

As there are 14 churches each congregation will be entitled to 14 articles—three pairs of two items, and four pairs of two items, in order to make the distribution equitable. Adolph's plan is for each pastor to select 14 children to whom the gift is to be given, and write a note bearing his signature, which will be honored at the Sample Shoe Store. In this manner 200 pairs of serviceable footwear will be distributed among the needy ones at a time when they are most welcome.

Beautiful souvenir calendars will also be given to ladies who call and register at the Sample Shoe Store within the next six days. These souvenirs are limited and as they are expensive the registration is required to give all a square deal.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR RAZING BRIDGE

Dravo Construction Company will do the Work for $4,800.

At a joint meeting of the Washington and Allegheny county commissioners in Pittsburg yesterday, bids were opened for razing the old bridge crossing from Monongahela, Washington county, to Forward township, Allegheny county. This structure has been condemned and the counties advertised for bids for tearing it down. The lowest bidder was the Dravo Contracting company which was awaded the contract at $4,800. Each county pays half the cost, which makes Washington county's share $2,400. The work will be started at once.

SPECIAL SACRIFICE HOLIDAY RUSH

Owing to the backward weather Loius Beigel of 419 McKean avenue, has inaugurated a sacrifice shoe sale, which is now in progress. It started Thursday, and will continue 14 days.

Mr. Beigel has placed $20,000 worth of the best footwear to be found anywhere on sale at astonishingly low prices. This is not only important to holiday shoppers, but it gives the people an opportunity to get the reduced prices at the beginning of winter that inevitably come later. Mr. Beigel's reputation is such that the announcement of a sacrifice sale always attracts crowds of buyers.

WILL FAVOR NO TICKET

State Federation Takes Action on political Question.

The State Federation of Labor now in session at Harrisburg, will not favor a separate labor organization at next year's Legislative elections. Instead, its subordinate organizations will secure pledges from candidates for the General Assembly that they will support the Federation bills before giving such candidates endorsement and support.

Attempts were made to commit the Federation to a policy of a separate ticket, but it found little favor. In almost every instance delegates considered that they could get better results by handling matters in their own districts.

Numerous resolutions were presented, ranging from a call to labor to strike for two weeks if Gompers is called upon to serve a jail sentence to demands for an initiative and referendum law. Few were adopted, the others being referred to the March meeting of the Federation at New Castle.

Political discussions occupied most of the time. A delegate sprung a resolution in favor of woman suffrage and it was adopted unanimously.

EVANGELISTS HOLD A GOOD MEETING

One of the best meetings thus far at the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church, was held last evening by Evangelists Hendrick and Carter. The largest crowd of any evening service was present. The meetings are just now beginning to be effective, and within the next few days much is expected.

Last night Mr. Hendrick preached on the text "Where Art Thou?" He emphasized the point that there are two roads, and asked which one each person would decide to take—the "Saved" or the "Lost."

Mr. Carter sang beautifully, "The Man of Galilee." He led the chorus singing, which was especially inspiring. There were two conversions at the conclusion.

Yesterday afternoon a special service for children was held. Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock a special meeting for men will be held.

Should Be Restored.

The statement from Washington, D. C., that rural route postal extension has been halted, pending proposed economies, serves to call attention to the fact that Charleroi has no routes at all leading from this town out into country. It had a route at one time, but this was abolished during the regime of former Congressman E. F. Acheson, presumably because Charleroi was a rebellious spot on the map politically and did not take kindly to his extravagant scheme of county roads. The ostensible reason why the rural route was taken away from Charleroi was on account of the bad condition of the roads, but as it was transferred to other roads equally as bad, the real cause was of course apparent.

By this act the purpose of aiming a blow at Charleroi was accomplished all right, as the transfer diverted much business from the town that was formerly transacted here. By the abolition of the route direct communication with a large country district was cut off. Many farmers who got their mail at the Charleroi office had their base transferred to either Speers or Monongahela. Mail that formerly reached those people from Charleroi the same day is not received until the next day. When these people have occasion to visit their postoffice they have to go to some other place than Charleroi, and this has diverted a large amount of business that is naturally tributarty to this town.

Now that there is an opportunity to rectify this grievous wrong so vindictively inflicted on Charleroi, the people here should make an effort to have the route restored and to get others if possible. Charleroi is the second largest town in the county, and is clearly entitled to all the rural routes that should come this way.

A Melancholy Sequel.

Following so close upon the foul murder in Charleroi last week the shocking double tragedy at Washington yesterday cannot be regarded otherwise than a sequel of the first crime. With motives apparently the same—personal grievances and fancied wrongs—it is more than probable that the first crime had a direct bearing upon the latter.

It is deplorable fact that any sensational crime is invariable followed byan avalanche of others of greater or less degree in various parts of the country. The Thaw case is a notable instance of this, where the so-called "unwritten law" found thousand of upholders among people who should have thrilled with horror at the mere suggestion of crime. It is the same in the matter of crimes committed for personal revenge. The fact that the perpetrator has "gotten even," no matter what the circumstances or conditions, always finds defenders among a certain class who openly express approval of the dastardly crime and invest the murderer with a cheap halo of heroism.

It is this sentiment that fosters and incites a repetition of these shocking crimes that cut short promising lives, wreck happy homes, and entail an endless chain of anguish and misery on generations yet to come. Every such crime invariably finds its imitators, until society is not safe in any walk or department of life.

Continuous Roads.

The agreement of the county commissioners of Washington with the commissoners of Allegheny county that they will extend the improved roads of the latter county where they come up to the county line, is a policy that will meet with the approval of the people generally. While the need of improved roads is apparent everywhere, it is most important that continuous thoroughfares be first of all constructed. This was what spragged E. F. Acheson's so-called good roads scheme of some years ago. As the policy was conceived for political purposes instead of on an economic basis, the scheme involved a patchwork of a macadam roads, a mile or two in each township, in order to keep in the good graces of each baliwick. It proved not only impracticable but extravagantly costly.

A policy, however, of continuous thoroughfares, constructed on plans that will conform to the State system, will meet with popular approval, providing wisdom and judgement are displayed in financing the plan and not involving the county hopelessly in debt. The county roads constructed in the Acheson regime are too narrow to be incorporated into the State system which will in time prevail throughout the entire Commonwealth. There is ample opportunity for the county to render invaluable assistance in the meantime, and as the matter is now in safe hands there need be no fear that good business judgement will not be displayed in the county road policy.

The Christmas Rush.

"Goldie and I were out shopping last night. We visited every store in town but one, and we're going to take that in tonight."

"What did you buy?"

"Nothing."

Perhaps some of those alleged phantom voters that are worrying the Washington Observer very much these days were the "Acheson Democrats," a political species that in the good old days of Acheson domination was always qualified to vote both ways as occasion demanded.

Nothwithstanding the Washington Observer characterizes the Charleroi Mail as the "brewers' and booze organ," the Federated Men's Bible Classes of the First District of the County Sunday School Association named the entire editorial staff of the latter paper as its press committee.

"Idiot" is a serious name for one fellow to apply to another. He might be affected that way himself.

The trouble about this suffrage business, would be that it might give the fair sex a taste for cigarets, cigars and club life, and we lesser men mortals would have an awful time keeping them home nights.

Talking about council meetings, the Connellsville bunch made a new record the other night, that there are few would want to follow. They spent money at the rate of $2,000 a minute, and it is said actually enjoyed the distinction thus gained.

Water companies in several towns of the State are getting in now from all known sides. Couldn't some kind persons invent another side, and give the people the advantage of that also?

For way of variety Monongahela has one or two celebrations a year. They rather make a success of them too, somehow.

To be precise the winter season does not open until December 20. However, preciseness is sometimes over-balanced by bald facts.

The girls who dipped another member of their sex in a tub of ice water up in West Virginia, show that in some lines their education has not been neglected.

It's not often that a minister gets hauled up before the bar of justice, but when he does it would not be a bad idea for the judge to get him to offer a prayer to save all the poor fellows around from the vultures pretending to be respectable men.

Many people are not aware that it is unnecessary to always "arise to meet an emergency."

With the approach of Halley's Comet, it will not seem so strange for fellows who have been out all night, to aver that they have seen the comet.

The only man who makes any money following the horses, it seems, is the man who does your moving.

Up in Detroit they operated upon a six-year-old child for appendicitis. When some of these specialists become anxious for an appendix, they can generally find one somewhere.

One thing that it is not altogether advisable to buy early is Christmas candy. It might grow stale.

The reason many people never do their Christmas shopping early, is that they cannot determine what to buy.

MICROBES IN THE SCALP

The Latest Explanation is that Microbes Cause Baldness.

Professor Unna of Hamburg, Germany and Dr. Sabourand of Paris, France, share the honor of having discovered the hair microbe.

Baldness is not caused through a few weeks' work of these hair microbes, but is the result of conditions brought about by their presence. Baldness may not occur until years after the microbes began work, but it is certain to come sooner or later.

The microbes cut off the blood supply. They feed on the fatty matter about the roots of the hair, through which the blood is absorbed. Finally the fatty matter is consumed, the food supply of the hair is gone and it starves and finally dies.

Resorcin is one of the most effective germs destroyers ever discovered. Betta Nahpthol is a most powerful, yet absolutely safe germicide and antiseptic, which prevents development of germ matter, and creates a clean, healthy condition.

Pilocarpine, although not a coloring matter or dye, is an ingredient well established for its power to restore natural color to human hair when loss of color has been caused by a disease.

Borax, because of its well-defined softening and cleansing properties, is most useful in the treatment of scalp and hair diseases. Glycerine acts as a stimulant to the hair bulbs, and has a soothing, healing and nourishing influence. Alcohol is indispensable in medicine because of its antiseptic, stimulating and preservative qualities.

We want every one who has scalp or hair trouble to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic, which contains all these ingredients. If it does not give you complete satisfaction in every particular, we will return every penny you paid us for it, for the mere asking and without question or formality.

Of course you understand that when we say that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will grow hair we do not refer to cases where the roots are entirely dead, the pores of the scalp closed, and the head has the shiny appearance of a billiard ball. In cases like this there is no hope. In all other cases baldness Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will grow hair, or cost the user nothing. Two sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Charleroi only at our store—The Rexall Store. John W. Carroll.

A SECRET NO LONGER

Practical and Easy Plan Which Carries Beauty With it Everywhere.

For the woman who owns a Harlan Beauty Cup there are no "massage secrets," because with this wonderful appliance better results can be secured and in quicker time, than by any expert hand operator. The Beauty Cup is made of pure Para rubber, acts by a gentle vacuum process, and in addition to quickly dispelling wrinkles has a marked curative effect by the manipulation it gives the skin both on and beneath the surface.

In the same laboratory which marks the Beauty Cup, the famous Crown Cream is produced. This is unquestionably the leading face cream of America—a position won by merit. No other toilet cream can perform the same service, because Crown Cream possess healing and nourishing ingredients not to be had elsewhere. Even without massage it is a wonderful restorer of wasted and pallid complexions, giving new tone and energy to the starved tissues. Used in connection with the Beauty Cup a quality of massage is secured, that cannot be had by any other means. While it is more mild than hand massage, it is vastly more effective. Crown Cream retails everywhere at 50c a jar, and this is the price of the Beauty Cup as well. If your dealer has not these goods, wasted no time but order direct from the Harlan Mfg. Co. Toledo, O., and the article will come prepaid upon receipt of the price.

YOUNG MAN SUPPOSED TO BE INSANELY JEALOUS OF GIRL

Coroner Heffran Holds Inquest This Morning at Washington.

FACTS OF SHOOTING

Popular Girl Murdered by Youth Who Then Takes His Own Life

At an inquest held this morning in the coroner's office at Washington, into the death of Miss Laura Braden, the daughter of Attorney Alfred G. Braden of Washington, and Walter Seybold, a young fellow who shot her and afterwards himself, the coroner's jury returned a verdict to the effect that the girl had come to her death from bullet wounds received from a revolver in Seybold's hands and that the latter had died from injuries inflicted by himself, when closely pursued by officers. The inquest was held by Coroner James T. Heffran.

The tragedy occurred yesterday about noon, as the girl was returning home from High School, where she is a sophomore. Five bullets were fired into the girl's body at close range by Sebyold. He then ran and after covering several squares, when he saw he was closely pursued by Chief of Police Delaney, threw himself on a lawn, and fired a death-dealing bullet into his own brain. Miss Braden was 15 years old and the boy 19.

Among the witnesses examined by the coroner this morning were Miss Helen Lynn, Mrs. W. W. Chalfant and Paul Hallam. Miss Lynn testified that Seybold passed her when he was fleeing, that he was carrying the gun and that he spoke to her, saying "I'll get you yet." She was uncertain whether he meant her or not. Mrs. Chalfant testified that she saw the shooting and saw the Braden girl try to arise after the first two shots had been fired, but Seybold pushed her back and fired twice again. Paul Hallam said he was with Miss Braden and saw the tragedy.

The reason given for the tragedy was the mad infatuation of young Seybold for Miss Braden, which she did not reciprocate. She always treated him kindly, even when he, on account of his moody disposition, was called "anarchist" by schoolmates. From illness it is thought that he may have become mentally unbalanced.

The members of Miss Braden's class held a meeting this morning and a committee was appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the popular young lady. It was a very sad meeting. It is probable that some of the members will be chosen as the pall bearers for her funeral.

Young Seabold is the son of John W. Seabold a well known cigar maker.

Evangelists E. E. Hendrick and A. L. Carter, who are holding services at the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church went to Masontown, this morning to spend the day with friends. They held services there last winter.

Mrs. Edwin McKay and daughter are spending the day in Pittsburg.

FATE HAS IT IN FOR MAN

Former Donora Resident Returns With Woeful Tale of Misfortunes.

An investigation has been started, through the appearance of John Somerville, an aged Scotchman, at his former home in Donora, to clear up a mystery of two years' standing.

Somerville has had more than his share of ill fortune, and the fickel dame has apparently done anything but smile on him. He and his wife formerly lived at Donora. Fate had it in for them, and debts accumulated in a startling manner. As a result they decided to leave for their native heath, Scotland. Tickets were purchased, affairs shaped up, and they left. The first thing Somerville did, was to lose his mileage book. He found it later, however. In New York, according to his story he was drugged by some one, and was lying on a public road when he came to. From there he was taken to a poor house. Everything of any value whatsoever had been taken from him. Finally a kindhearted person lent him enough to come to Donora, and now he is trying to raise funds enough to get back to Scotland.

BENTLEYVILLE THINKS IT WILL GET STATION

According to a statement made by Engineer Barrett of the Pennsylvania Railroad, the company is now ready and willing to give Bentleyville a station. He further said, however, that people there must show that they are in earnest about wanting a station. He said the persons who owned the property on which the company wished to locate the station were asking excessive prices for their ground, and were thus holding back this improvement, which would mean much for the town and community. Mr. Barrett hinted that unless a different spirit was shown the station might be shifted to a point which would not be nearly so acceptable to a large part of the residents.

SHOES WILL BE GIVEN AS CHRISTMAS PRESENTS TO NEEDY CHILDREN OF TOWN

Ever since Adolph Beigel, the enterprising shoe merchant, opened the Sample Shoe Store at 502 Fallowfield avenue he has enacted the role of Santa Claus each Christmas, and distributed treats to the myriads of children who flocked to his store. The custom will be continued again this Christmas, as the little ones have come to regard it as an annual holiday event to which they look forward to with pleasure.

Not only will Adolph look after the children again this Christmas as dsual, but in appreciation of the patronage of the people and the good will of the various churches of the community he proposes to extend his Christmas beneficences to a more practical application. To this end he proposes to distribute among the worthy and needy children of the various church congregations the following articles: Fifty pairs of children's leggings; 50 pairs of children's rubbers; 50 pairs of children's slippers; 50 pairs of children's shoes.

As there are 14 churches each congregation will be entitled to 14 articles—three pairs of two items, and four pairs of two items, in order to make the distribution equitable. Adolph's plan is for each pastor to select 14 children to whom the gift is to be given, and write a note bearing his signature, which will be honored at the Sample Shoe Store. In this manner 200 pairs of serviceable footwear will be distributed among the needy ones at a time when they are most welcome.

Beautiful souvenir calendars will also be given to ladies who call and register at the Sample Shoe Store within the next six days. These souvenirs are limited and as they are expensive the registration is required to give all a square deal.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR RAZING BRIDGE

Dravo Construction Company will do the Work for $4,800.

At a joint meeting of the Washington and Allegheny county commissioners in Pittsburg yesterday, bids were opened for razing the old bridge crossing from Monongahela, Washington county, to Forward township, Allegheny county. This structure has been condemned and the counties advertised for bids for tearing it down. The lowest bidder was the Dravo Contracting company which was awaded the contract at $4,800. Each county pays half the cost, which makes Washington county's share $2,400. The work will be started at once.

SPECIAL SACRIFICE HOLIDAY RUSH

Owing to the backward weather Louis Beigel of 419 McKean avenue, has inaugurated a sacrifice shoe sale, which is now in progress. It started Thursday, and will continue 14 days.

Mr. Beigel has placed $20,000 worth of the best footwear to be found anywhere on sale at astonishingly low prices. This is not only important to holiday shoppers, but it gives the people an opportunity to get the reduced prices at the beginning of winter that inevitably come later. Mr. Beigel's reputation is such that the announcement of a sacrifice sale always attracts crowds of buyers.

Resolution of Respect.

Resolutions of respect, adopted by Charleroi Turn Verein on the death of William Adams, Charleroi, Pa., December 8, 1909.

Resolved, That the sudden removal of such a life from our midst leaves a vacancy that will be deeply realized by all members of this organization.

Resolved, That with deep sympathy with the bereaved relatives of the deceased, we express our hope that even so great a loss to us all may be over-ruled for good by Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes, a copy printed in a local paper and a copy forwarded to the bereaved family.

WILL FAVOR NO TICKET

State Federation Takes Action on political Question.

The State Federation of Labor now in session at Harrisburg will back no separate labor organization at next year's Legislative elections. Instead, its subordinate organizations will secure pledges from candidates for the General Assembly that they will support the Federation bills before giving such candidates endorsement and support.

Attempts were made to commit the Federation to a policy of a separate ticket, but it found little favor. In almost every instance delegates considered that they could get better results by handling matters in their own districts.

Numerous resolutions were presented, ranging from a call to labor to strike for two weeks if Gompers is called upon to serve a jail sentence to demands for an initiative and referendum law. Few were adopted, the others being referred to the March meeting of the Federation at New Castle.

Political discussions occupied most of the time. A delegate sprung a resolution in favor of woman suffrage and it was adopted unanimously.

EVANGELISTS HOLD A GOOD MEETING

One of the best meetings thus far at the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church, was held last evening by Evangelists Hendrick and Carter. The largest crowd of any evening service was present. The meetings are just now beginning to be effective, and within the next few days much is expected.

Last night Mr. Hendrick preached on the text "Where Art Thou?" He emphasized the point that there are two roads, and asked which one each person would decide to take—the "Saved" or the "Lost."

Mr. Carter sang beautifully, "The Man of Galilee." He led the chorus singing, which was especially inspiring. There were two conversions at the conclusion.

Yesterday afternoon a special service for children was held. Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock a special meeting for men will be held.

Entered in the Post Office at Charleroi Pa., as second class matter.

Should Be Restored.

The statement from Washington, D. C., that rural route postal extension has been halted, pending proposed economies, serves to call attention to the fact that Charleroi has no routes at all leading from this town out into country. It had a route at one time, but this was abolished during the regime of former Congressman E. F. Acheson, presumably because Charleroi was a rebellious spot on the map politically and did not take kindly to his extravagant scheme of county roads. The ostensible reason why the rural route was taken away from Charleroi was on account of the bad condition of the roads, but as it was transferred to other roads equally as bad, the real cause was of course apparent.

By this act the purpose of aiming a blow at Charleroi was accomplished all right, as the transfer diverted much business from the town that was formerly transacted here. By the abolition of the route direct communication with a large country district was cut off. Many farmers who got their mail at the Charleroi office had their base transferred to either Speers or Monongahela. Mail that formerly reached those people from Charleroi the same day is not received until the next day. When these people have occasion to visit their postoffice they have to go to some other place than Charleroi, and this has diverted a large amount of business that is naturally tributarty to this town.

Now that there is an opportunity to rectify this grievous wrong so vindictively inflicted on Charleroi, the people here should make an effort to have the route restored and to get others if possible. Charleroi is the second largest town in the county, and is clearly entitled to all the rural routes that should come this way.

A Melancholy Sequel.

Following so close upon the foul murder in Charleroi last week the shocking double tragedy at Washington yesterday cannot be regarded otherwise than a sequel of the first crime. With motives apparently the same—personal grievances and fancied wrongs—it is more than probable that the first crime had a direct bearing upon the latter.

It is deplorable fact that any sensational crime is invariable followed byan avalanche of others of greater or less degree in various parts of the country. The Thaw case is a notable instance of this, where the so-called "unwritten law" found thousand of upholders among people who should have thrilled with horror at the mere suggestion of crime. It is the same in the matter of crimes committed for personal revenge. The fact that the perpetrator has "gotten even," no matter what the circumstances or conditions, always finds defenders among a certain class who openly express approval of the dastardly crime and invest the murderer with a cheap halo of heroism.

It is this sentiment that fosters and incites a repetition of these shocking crimes that cut short promising lives, wreck happy homes, and entail an endless chain of anguish and misery on generations yet to come. Every such crime invariably finds its imitators, until society is not safe in any walk or department of life.

Continuous Roads.

The agreement of the county commissioners of Washington with the commissioners of Allegheny county that they will extend the improved roads of the latter county where they come up to the county line, is a policy that will meet with the approval of the people generally. While the need of improved roads is apparent everywhere, it is most important that continuous thoroughfares be first of all constructed. This was what spragged E. F. Acheson's so-called good roads scheme of some years ago. As the policy was conceived for political purposes instead of on an economic basis, the scheme involved a patchwork of a thousand roads, a mile or two in each township, in order to keep in the good graces of each bailiwick. It proved not only impracticable but extravagantly costly.

A policy, however, of continuous thoroughfares, constructed on plans that will conform to the State system, will meet with popular approval, providing wisdom and judgement are displayed in financing the plan and not involving the county hopelessly in debt. The county roads constructed in the Acheson regime are too narrow to be incorporated into the State system which will in time prevail throughout the entire Commonwealth. There is ample opportunity for the county to render invaluable assistance in the meantime, and as the matter is now in safe hands there need be no fear that good business judgement will not be displayed in the county road policy.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

The Christmas Rush.

"Goldie and I were out shopping last night. We visited every store in town but one, and we're going to take that in tonight."

"What did you buy?"

"Nothing."

Perhaps some of those alleged phantom voters that are worrying the Washington Observer very much these days were the "Acheson Democrats," a political species that in the good old days of Acheson domination was always qualified to vote both ways as occasion demanded.

Nothwithstanding the Washington Observer characterizes the Charleroi Mail as the "brewers' and booze organ," the Federated Men's Bible Classes of the First District of the County Sunday School Association named the entire editorial staff of the latter paper as its press committee.

"Idiot" is a serious name for one fellow to apply to another. He might be affected that way himself.

The trouble about this suffrage business, would be that it might give the fair sex a taste for cigarets, cigars and club life, and we lesser men mortals would have an awful time keeping them home nights.

Talking about council meetings, the Connellsville bunch made a new record the other night, that there are few would want to follow. They spent money at the rate of $2,000 a minute, and it is said actually enjoyed the distinction thus gained.

Water companies in several towns of the State are getting in now from all known sides. Couldn't some kind persons invent another side, and give the people the advantage of that also?

For way of variety Monongahela has one or two celebrations a year. They rather make a success of them too, somehow.

To be precise the winter season does not open until December 20. However, preciseness is sometimes over-balanced by bald facts.

The girls who dipped another member of their sex in a tub of ice water up in West Virginia, show that in some lines their education has not been neglected.

It's not often that a minister gets hauled up before the bar of justice, but when he does it would not be a bad idea for the judge to get him to offer a prayer to save all the poor fellows around from the vultures pretending to be respectable men.

Many people are not aware that it is unnecessary to always "arise to meet an emergency."

With the approach of Halley's Comet, it will not seem so strange for fellows who have been out all night, to aver that they have seen the comet.

The only man who makes any money following the horses, it seems, is the man who does your moving.

Up in Detroit they operated upon a six-year-old child for appendicitis. When some of these specialists become anxious for an appendix, they can generally find one somewhere.

One thing that it is not altogether advisable to buy early is Christmas candy. It might grow stale.

The reason many people never do their Christmas shopping early, is that they cannot determine what to buy.

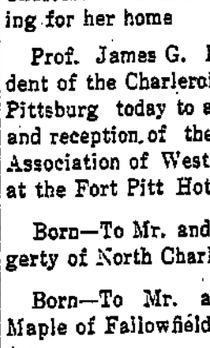
ANOTHER WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Gardiner, Maine.—"I have been a great sufferer from organic troubles and a severe female weakness. The doctor said I would have to go to the hospital for an operation, but I could not bear to think of it. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash—and was entirely cured after three months' use of them."—Mrs. S. A. WILLIAMS, R. F. D. No. 14, Box 39, Gardiner, Me.



No woman should submit to a surgical operation, which may mean death, until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made exclusively from roots and herbs, a fair trial.

This famous medicine for women has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and renewer of the female organism. Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ills and creates radiant, buoyant female health. If you are ill, for your own sake as well as those you love, give it a trial.

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

MICROBES IN THE SCALP

The Latest Explanation is that Microbes Cause Baldness.

Professor Unna of Hamburg, Germany and Dr. Sabourand of Paris, France, share the honor of having discovered the hair microbe.

Baldness is not caused through a few weeks' work of these hair microbes, but is the result of conditions brought about by their presence. Baldness may not occur until years after the microbes began work, but it is certain to come sooner or later.

The microbes cut off the blood supply. They feed on the fatty matter about the roots of the hair, through which the blood is absorbed. Finally the fatty matter is consumed, the food supply of the hair is gone and it starves and finally dies.

Resorcin is one of the most effective germs destroyers ever discovered. Betta Nahpthol is a most powerful, yet absolutely safe germicide and antiseptic, which prevents development of germ matter, and creates a clean, healthy condition.

Pilocarpine, although not a coloring matter or dye, is an ingredient well established for its power to restore natural color to human hair when loss of color has been caused by a disease.

Borax, because of its well-defined softening and cleansing properties, is most useful in the treatment of scalp and hair diseases. Glycerine acts as a stimulant to the hair bulbs, and has a soothing, healing and nourishing influence. Alcohol is indispensable in medicine because of its antiseptic, stimulating and preservative qualities.

We want every one who has scalp or hair trouble to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic, which contains all these ingredients. If it does not give you complete satisfaction in every particular, we will return every penny you paid us for it, for the mere asking and without question or formality.

Of course you understand that when we say that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will grow hair we do not refer to cases where the roots are entirely dead, the pores of the scalp closed, and the head has the shiny appearance of a billiard ball. In cases like this there is no hope. In all other cases baldness Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will grow hair, or cost the user nothing. Two sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Charleroi only at our store—The Rexall Store. John W. Carroll.

A SECRET NO LONGER

Practical and Easy Plan Which Carries Beauty With it Everywhere.

For the woman who owns a Harlan Beauty Cup there are no "massage secrets," because with this wonderful appliance better results can be secured and in quicker time, than by any expert hand operator. The Beauty Cup is made of pure Para rubber, acts by a gentle vacuum process, and in addition to quickly dispelling wrinkles has a marked curative effect by the manipulation it give the skin both on and beneath the surface

In the same laboratory which marks the Beauty Cup, the famous Crown Cream is produced. This is unquestionably the leading face cream of America—a position won by merit. No other toilet cream can perform the same service, because Crown Cream possess healing and nourishing ingredients not to be had elsewhere. Even without massage it is a wonderful restorer of wasted and pallid complexions, giving new tone and energy to the starved tissues. Used in connection with the Beauty Cup a quality of massage is secured, that cannot be had by any other means. While it is more mild than hand massage, it is vastly more effective. Crown Cream retails everywhere at 50c a jar, and this is the price of the Beauty Cup as well. If your dealer has not these goods, wasted no time but order direct from the Harlan Mfg. Co. Toledo. O., and the article will come prepaid upon receipt of the price.
